

PHONE CALL SCRIPT:

Hello, my name is [YOUR NAME] and I'm calling the office of [TITLE AND NAME OF SENATOR OR REPRESENTATIVE] because I am one of your constituents. I live at [ADDRESS, CITY, and STATE] and my phone number is [PHONE NUMBER].

I'm calling you today because I'd like the [SENATOR OR REPRESENTATIVE] to address the recent acts of violence, vandalism, and intimidation being done in the name of President-Elect Trump. These crimes target racial minorities, the LGBTQ+ community, religious groups, women, and other American citizens who have as much right to live here without threat or harassment as anyone else. To that end, I would ask the [SENATOR OR REPRESENTATIVE] to take the following actions:

First, as one of our elected leaders we're asking that you please publicly denounce these acts of violence, property destruction, and intimidation. Join your voice with the millions of Americans who are calling for such actions to stop and use the full authority of your office to punish those responsible.

Second, please publicly call on President-Elect Trump to also denounce these crimes being committed in his name, and the hateful organizations that are rallying behind him. Specifically, the KKK. These actions and groups are decidedly un-American. The name of our President-Elect should not be used to invoke such hate. His condemnation of these crimes would help show all Americans he takes the office and his responsibilities seriously.

Third, please publicly denounce the appointment of Steve Bannon as Donald Trump's Chief Strategist and Senior Advisor. Mr. Bannon has an extensive and well-documented history of anti-Semitism, misogyny, and white supremacy. As the executive chairman of Breitbart News, he has used his media influence to further the alt-right's hateful, white nationalist movement. The KKK has already said that Mr. Bannon's appointment signals that Mr. Trump is "sticking to the issues." There is no place for that kind of hatred in America, and it cannot be emboldened.

You will be hearing from me on more issues in the future. Thank you for your time.
